6. In vetting proceedings, a valid court decision may be appealed by means of cassation only by the Prosecutor General and the Commissioner for Civil Rights Protection either ex officio or upon a motion of the vetted person. A Cassation may be lodged:
 - 1) on grounds of flagrant breach of law, if it could have a significant effect on the decision,
 - 2) if upholding of the decision would be manifestly unjust.
7. The legally valid decision with the statement of reasons shall be enclosed as an appendix to the motion of a vetted person referred to in Paragraph 6.
8. A Cassation shall be lodged within 12 months from the date when the decision becomes legally valid.

9. A Cassation in the case of the same vetted person and concerning the same decision may be lodged by the entitled party only once.

10. The Supreme Court shall examine the Cassation within 3 months from the day it is lodged.

Article 21c

When the court receives from the National Electoral Commission a Declaration of the candidate to the office of the President of the Republic of Poland or information referred to in Article 40a Paragraph 5 of the Act on Election of the President of the Republic of Poland of 27 September 1990 (Journal of Laws 2000 No 47, item 544, with subsequent amendments), it shall issue a decision in the first instance within 21 days and in the second instance within 14 days. The decision of the court shall without delay be served to the National Electoral Commission.

Article 21d

1. To institute vetting proceedings de novo provisions of the Criminal Proceedings Code shall apply accordingly in all matters not regulated by provisions of this Act.

2. Vetting proceedings concluded with a legally valid decision shall be instituted de novo if:

1) an offence confirmed by a legally valid judgement has been committed in connection with the proceedings and there are grounds to assume that the offence might have affected the decision;

2) after the decision has been issued, new facts or evidence previously unknown to the court come to light and indicate that the legally valid decision of the court is obviously unjust in view of these new facts or evidence.

3. The vetting proceedings shall not be instituted de novo to the detriment of the vetted person upon the lapse of 10 years period from the day the decision of the court becomes legally valid.

4. The vetting proceedings may be instituted de novo ex officio or upon a motion of the person in whose case the legally valid decision was issued, or upon a motion of the director of the Vetting Office of the Institute of National Remembrance.

5. In the event that a person in whose case the legally valid decision was issued dies, the motion to institute vetting proceedings de novo for the benefit of that person may be submitted by a person defined under provisions of Article 115§ 11 of the Penal Code as a member of immediate family.

Article 21e

1. A legally valid decision of the court confirming the fact that the vetted person submitted an untrue Vetting Declaration shall constitute an obligatory prerequisite to depose this person from the public office referred to in Article 4, points 2 to 53, subject to Article 21f.

2. The decision of the court referred to in Paragraph 1 shall be forwarded by the president of the court to the authority competent to depose the vetted person from the public office.

3. Deposition of the vetted person from the public office shall be effected ex lege on the day of service on the authority referred to in Paragraph 2 of the decision referred to in Paragraph 1.

4. Provisions of Paragraphs 1 and 3 shall not apply to persons who, under separate provisions, are subject to penalty of deposition from the public office, in particular by dismissal or removal from relevant list or register in the event of submission of an untrue Vetting Declaration which is confirmed by a legally valid decision of the court.

Article 21f

1. Provisions of Article 21e, Paragraphs 1 and 3, shall not apply to judges, prosecutors, counsellors and senior counsellors in the Office of the General Attorney of the Treasury, attorneys, law counsellors, notaries and court enforcement officers, who are subject to disciplinary jurisdiction in these matters. Provision of Article 21e, Paragraphs 2, shall apply accordingly.

2. In the event of the submission of an untrue Vetting Declaration by a person performing professions stipulated in Paragraph 1 which is confirmed by a legally valid decision of the court, the disciplinary court shall adjudicate penalty of deposition from office or other disciplinary penalty stipulated by provisions of relevant statutes and resulting in deprivation of the public office. Provisions concerning statutes of limitations in disciplinary proceedings shall not apply.

3. A Request to initiate disciplinary proceedings in the cases specified in Paragraph 2 may be also lodged by the Prosecutor of the Vetting Office or the prosecutor of a branch vetting office of the Institute of National Remembrance.

Article 21g

A legally valid decision of the court confirming the fact that the vetted person submitted an untrue Vetting Declaration shall result in the deprivation of a vetted person, for a period of 10 years, of the right to be elected to the office of the President of the Republic Poland.

Chapter VII Interim and Final Provisions

Article 56

1. Every person born before 1 August 1972 who, on the day of entry into force of this Act, holds a public office specified in Article 4 shall be obligated to submit Declaration referred to in Article 7, Paragraph 1 within 1 month from the day of service of the notification referred to in Paragraph 2.

2. A competent authority referred to in Article 8, within 1 month from the day of entry into force of this Act, shall notify the person referred to in Paragraph 1 of the obligation to submit to this authority the Declaration referred to in Article 7 Paragraph 1, and shall caution the person as to the consequences of failure to comply with the obligation, subject to Paragraph 2a.

2a. The voivode shall be a competent authority to undertake actions referred to in Paragraph 2 in the case of persons holding offices as a local government body or a member of a local government body or a local government subsidiary unit body established in accordance with an obligation expressed in provisions of a statute, and chosen in general election.

3. In the case of persons referred to in Paragraph 1 who hold more than one public office specified in Article 4, the obligation to submit Declaration referred to in Article 7, Paragraph 2, shall be deemed fulfilled if these persons submit such Declarations to one of the authorities referred to in Article 8 competent to receive the declaration. Information referred to in Article 7, Paragraph 3a, shall be submitted to all other competent authorities.

4. A person who, after the entry into force of this Act, continues to run for or compete to hold a public office referred to in Article 4 is obligated to submit Declaration referred to in Article 7, Paragraph 1 before assumption of the said office.

Article 57

1. In the event that a Vetting Declaration is not submitted within the stipulated time limit by a person obligated under Article 56, Paragraph 1, the provision of Article 21e, Paragraph 1, shall take effect.

2. Deposition from the public office of the person referred to in Paragraph 1 shall take effect ex lege on the day of the lapse of the time limit to submit the Declaration. The fact of deposition from the public office shall be confirmed by the authority competent in matters concerning deposition or termination of the public office.

3. Provisions of Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply to a judge who, in the case of failure to comply with the obligation to submit the Declaration within the stipulated time limit, shall be subject to disciplinary proceedings. The disciplinary court shall adjudicate the penalty of deposition from the office of a judge in the case of failure to submit the Declaration. Provisions relating to limitation shall not apply to disciplinary proceedings.

4. Disciplinary proceedings in the cases specified in Paragraph 3 shall be instituted upon a request of subjects referred to in Article 114 § 1 of Organization of Common Courts Act of 27 July 2001.

Article 57a
